

REALITY SANDWICH HERALDS TIME TRAVEL WHISTLE BLOWERS
ANDREW D. BASIAGO AND DR. DAVID LEWIS ANDERSON – 1/12/10

Amy Baczkowski, Time Travel Whistleblowers, www.realitysandwich.com, January 12, 2010

A September 2009 report released by the ALTA WebBot that predicts a whistle blower's revelations will encourage others to expose the U.S. government's role in time travel research appears to be coming true.

On December 23, 2009, Dr. David Lewis Anderson went public in a two-hour interview detailing time control research he conducted on behalf of the U.S. Air Force.

In accordance with the ALTA WebBot's prophecy, this is the second person that has come forward asserting the U.S. government's knowledge of time travel.

Andrew D. Basiago was first to do so in an interview in August 2009 and then again in November 2009. Basiago claims he contributed to the top secret DARPA time travel program, "Project Pegasus," from 1969-72. He says a device using Tesla technology allowed him to teleport from New Jersey to New Mexico.

Basiago and Anderson both assert that the U.S. government's time travel technology should be made public knowledge. They see a promising future free from constraints of time and space.

The ALTA WebBot examines changing use and emotional value placed upon 300,000 key words across the Internet. This creates a snapshot of the world's collective unconscious which is then analyzed by ALTA (Asymmetrical Language Trend Analysis) to predict future trends...
